

The ELSE GRADUATE RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP

The ESRC-funded Centre for Economic Learning and Social Evolution (ELSE) is an interdisciplinary research centre at UCL focusing on issues of common interest to economists and psychologists. In the Economics Department, ELSE researchers work on economic theory, experimental economics and applied economics.

One scholarship of £9,000 (or two part-scholarships of £4,500 each) available for prospective MPhil/PhD students in the Department of Economics planning to work on topics of interest to the ELSE centre, who are not already receiving full fee and maintenance support from other sources. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic merit, and are normally tenable for one year only.

The centre's website can be found at:

<http://else.econ.ucl.ac.uk>

Deadline

15th January 2009

Application Procedure

Applicants should send an academic curriculum vitae and a letter of no more than 500 words describing their areas of interest in the discipline. The scholarship application must indicate that the applicant wishes to be considered for the ELSE scholarship. No further documentation should be sent in support of the scholarship application, as decisions about awards of the scholarships will be made on the basis of the admissions documentation and academic references.

Completed applications should be submitted to
